

AFTER THE DIP A Boston Store Turkish Towel

Whether you take a dip in the "briny" or in the seclusion of your bathroom, it makes no difference. For, having provided yourself with some of our Turkish Towels, the maximum of bathing comfort will be yours. And you will find another source of satisfaction in these Towels -the prices are very low. We contracted for these when the prices were considerably less than they now are. These prices have been advanced several times, but we can still sell them at the prices of last Spring.

> BUY NOW AT LAST SPRING'S PRICES WE HAVE TURKISH TOWELS AT

15c — 17c — 19c — 22c — 25c — 33c — 39c

ABOUT WESTERLY IN AND

Seven Men From First Division To Be Chosen For State's Initial Draft Increment of 111-Major A. N. Nash Transferred To Boxford-Certified List As Far As Completed -Police Looking For Louis Peabody.

union station in Providence.

This increment will number approximately lil, and will be chosen regardless of the order of liability in which the men stand, although later contingents will go according to sequence. he selected carefully, only reliable men who can be depended upon to report on the day set for entrainment will be the ones privileged to reach camp first of this priority.

Hereafter, mobilization points will probably be determined in each district and men will assemble first at the points. It is believed that the nen chosen for this group can be re-

FREE TO

ASTHMA SUFFERERS

A New Home Cure That Anyone Can the Without Discomfort or Loss of

Time.

We have a new method that cures strime and we want you to try it at at the expense. No making whether your set is of long standing or recent despondent whether it is present as hay ear or chronic astroma you should end for a few trial of our method. No latter in what climate you live, no matter what your age or occupation, if you are troubled with asthma, our reined should relieve you promptly. We especially want to send it to hose apparently hopoless cases, where forms of inhalors douches oplium spiralisms, times, "patent smokes," to have falled. We want to show stryone at our own expense that this is w method is designed to end all diffuse terrible paroxy me at once and the time. This free offer is too important to this free offer is too important to time.

free offer is too important to t a single day. Write loday and the insthod at once. Send no
Simply mail coupon below.

FREE ASTHMA COUPON FRONTIER ASTHMA CO., Room 1978, Ningara and Hudson Sts. Buffaio, N. Y.

Send free trial of your method to:

Adjutant General Charles W. Abbot, sent orders Wednesday to all Rhode and a zelection boards to pick 5 per tion board headquarters or whatever places are designated for this purpose. No alternates will be ordered to reverties for the cantonment at Ayer, we for the cantonment at Ayer, see, Sept. 5. This means seven men case of any vacancies at the last minutes. Adjutant General Charles W. Abbot, | lied upon to appear, without the prefrom the First division, which inilludes Westerly.

Men with previous military experiaccording from the contingent. They will then be notified to prepare for departure Sept 5 and to assemble at the million station in Providence.

Case of any vacancies at the last minute me nto fill the gaps will be sent later. Reliable men, it is thought, will day except in case of illness or other sufficient causes. On Sept. 19 and
Oct. 3, when other increments leave, the alternates will be summoned as
million station in Providence.

There is a man of cool facility.

There is a man of cool facility. prescribed by Provost Marshal General

> Major Arthur N. Nash of Westerly has been relieved of the command at Fort Getty and is succeeded by Senior Captain McCormick of the Fourteenth company. The major is among the officers transferred to Boxford, Mass. Colonel Charles F. Tillinghast, formerly in command of the Rhode Island Coast artillery, and for the past few weeks commander at Fort Greble, has been also transferred to Ayer. The other officers transferred to the 103d regiment at Eoxford are Captain Franklin E. Allen of the Sixth company, who is succeeded by First Lieutenant William Mancock, Captain William P. Shunney and Lieutenant A. Chester Earl of the Twelfth company, leaving Lieutenant John W. McCaffrey in command. Lieutenants James
> A. Doherty of the Third company, Harold W. Merrill of the Fifth company, > Westerly, and Edward P. Forsyth of > the Sixteenth company. Lieutenant > Colonel Alexander H. Johnson is in > command at Fort Greble > command at Fort Grebie.

>
> The Sixth and Fifteenth companies have been ordered from Grebie to Springfield Mass, to relieve regular army commands in guarding the United States arsenal.

The selection board of District No. 1 have certified 102 of the required 134 to fill the quota for the division and have ordered 180 more up for examination from which to select the required 32, to become a part of the national army. The certified list of men so far as completed follows:

James B. Spencer. East Greenwich.
Falmer Earl Smith, Jr., Hamilton.
George H. Sheldon, Jr., Wakefield,
Ernes: Di Biasio, Peace Dale. Thomas Franklin Streeter Wakefield.
Thomas W. Cruickshank, Westerly.
Norman M. Nibblins, Avondale.
Lloyd B. Langworthy, Ashaway.
Edmund Anton L. Passtii, Westerly.
Castodio F. da Silva, Charlestown.
Walter H. B. Allen, Jr., Narragansett
der.

Michael Calouri, East Greenwich, Michael Calouri, East Greenwich, Oliver L. Perry, Narragansett Pier, Charles H. Barber, Wakefield, Frank F. Geaber, Narragansett Pier, James I. Rose, Wickford, Robinson Hindle, Bradford, Anthony O. Archangle, Westerly, John Henry Lasell, Wakefield, Lloyd F. Woodmanses, Rockville Lloyd E. Woodmansee, Rockville, John Allwood, West Greenwich, John Rose, Westerly, John Rose, Westerly,
Robert H. Rogers, Allenton
Cedric Delma Blanchard, Peace Dale,
John Tumbull, Ashaway,
William H. Tefft, Davisville,
Peter Pankowski, Westerly
Ralph W. Northup, Wakefield,
William I. Hill, Narragansett Pier,
Patrick J. McGrath, Wakefield,
Patrick Lo Priore, Westerly,
Edward C. Thornley, Arcadia,
Carrol H. Greene, Hope Valley,
James Hamilton, Jr., Westerly,
Clarence L. Geer, Bradford,
Le Roy V. Taylor, Peace Dale,
Peleg Alvia Rodman, Westerly,
Frank P. Morenzoni, Westerly,
Lyman Rodman, Gould. Lyman Rodman, Gould, James Alesso, Westerly

Guiseppe Vuono, Bradford, Harry W. Greene, Wickford,

Gilbert T. Rodman, Lefayotte.
Harold E. Underwood, Charlestown.
Henry I. Lasell, Davisville.
George J. Ferraro, Westerly.
Henry A. Tucker, Wakef. i.
Allen H. Burdick, Charlestown.
Merton E. Browning, Wyoming.
Samuel A. Sanders, Westerly.
Charles B. Clarke, Wakefield.
Albert S. Krans, East Greenwich.
William Gardiner, Slocum.
John A. Enos, Westerly.
Christopher R. Champlin, Allenton.
John F. Marshall Keighley, Westerly.
Wilfred H. Smith, Narragansett Pier.
Clarence S. Crowell, East Greenwich.
Stanley S. Livingston, Westerly.
Fred W. Bristol, Peace Dale.
Sabato Moroso. Westerly.
Fred W. Bristol, Peace Dale.
Sabato Moroso. Westerly.
Leo Romano, Peace Dale.
William H. Greene, Lafayette.
James Bernasconi. Westerly.
Leo Romano, Peace Dale.
William H. Greene, Lafayette.
James Reale, Westerly.
Frank Barbieri, Bradford.
Allen D. Jordan, Rockville.
Leon Piascik, Hope Valley.
Joseph B. David, Narragansett Pier.
Walter O. Barber, East Greenwich.
Frank C. Smith, Westerly.
Vincenzo Martino, Westerly.
Joe Zisk, Hope Valley.
Herbert W. Illingworth, Wyoming.
Dennis L. Lynch, White Rock.
John Padolino, Westerly.
Walter L. Northup, Wakefield.
Edwin A. Whittren, East Greenwich.
Raffaele Lo Priore, Westerly.
Leonard S. Holley, Wakefield.
Henry Calvin Cassidy, Wakefield.
Charles M. Murray, Westerly.
James R. Wright, Shannock.
Angelo Rizzo, Westerly.
Leonard S. Holley, Wakefield.
Charles R. Johnson, East Greenwich.
John Coschinaro, Westerly.
J. Trassar Bradley, Wakefield.
Charles R. Johnson, East Greenwich.
John Coschinaro, Westerly.
J. Trassar Bradley, Wakefield.
Columbus J. Pasetti, Westerly.
J. Trassar Bradley, Wakefield.
Columbus J. Pasetti, Westerly.
Angelo Tesauro, Westerly.
Angelo Tesauro, Westerly.
John Bennett Wilcox, Westerly.
Angelo Tesauro, Westerly.
Bodward A. Comber, Narragansett
Pier.
Louis Collins, Watch Hill

Louis Collins, Watch Hill

Twenty-nine members of the Fifth company, Westerly, Coast Artillery corps, have volunteered for service in France upon the first call. These have been assigned to Company B, Second battalion, 101st regiment of engineers, 18th division, and are now at Wentyworth institute presented. worth institute, preparatory to going to Ayer, Mass., and from there over the seas: Sergeants Frederick A. Brown, Joseph A. Chauncey, Paul De Fonti, Corporals Cornelius A. Riley, Maurice L. Laing, Edward M. Chase, First Class Privates Lawrence E. Rook, Roy Wilcox, Arthur J. Frechette, William A. Mills and Arthur A. Clemens.

The other Fifth company men who volunteered for foreign service have been assigned to field artillery and are in camp at Boxford, Mass. They are in camp at Boxford, Mass. They are Corporal Irving McGowan, Mechanic Albert Brown, Privates Frederick Kennedy, John Couch, Charles Lavermoriare, Leo Gaffney, Peter Travis, William Parker, John Sawyer, Michael McCarthy, Harry Pipes, John Curtin, Alfred Papineau, Wilfred Matthews, Paul Tourgee, John Riley, Raymond Neild and Harry Flint. and Harry Flint.

Russeli Sparks, formerly of Westerly, who enlisted in Battery 7, Tenth Connecticut, at Bridgepore and subsequently encamped at Niantic, is now at Boxford, where the battery is a part of the 103d regiment, training for service abroad. He writes that Battery F has been increased to full strength by the addition of 50 coast artillerymen from Maine. Mystic is the home of young Sparks, who is a nephew of the late Albert Sparks of Norwich.

Radolfo Yanello, now serving a term of three years on three counts for larceny, prevaricated in regard to the disposition of stolen white lead. He

There is a man of good family connections, Louis Peabody, who is liable to do almost anything that is not on the level when under the influence of strong drink. He has been arrested in Westerly several times for being intoxicated, and was once arrested in Mystic for the more serious crime of intoxicated, and was once arrested in Mystic for the more serious crime of burghary. Now he is held on the charge of larceny for trial in the Third district court at Westerly.

Wednesday, Peabody was engaged in cutting grass on the A. B. Collins estate in Pleasant street, and became the contract of the court of the contract of the court of t intoxicated. He opened the door, with a key of his own, to the workshop of Louis Collins, located on the premises and then went away. Soon after it was learned that Peabody had taken a hox containing a dozen new augur bits, a hand drill, carpenters hatchet, a spiril level, a rule, screw-driver and two snippers, and also a level. All the goods, except the level, were recovered Tuesday night, and Peabody was arrested Wednesday morning. He declared he was drunk and did not remember taking the level. did not remember taking the articles that were traced directly to him. Po-lice Chief Brown is endeavoring to lotate the missing level, valued at $5, before the arraignment of Peabody on the charge of larceny. Peabody has a wife and several children, depending upon him for support. While many are claiming exemption rom military service, by reason of de-pendency, and in many cases with jus-fication, one Westerly man, foreign born, a Scotchman, with wife and three children, left here on Wednesday for Canada, having enlisted in the McLean regiment of the Canadian Highlanders. He is William Clachrie, a painter and a member of Clan Lestile. He is very well known and especially among the Scotch residents, that frequently listened to him playing Scotch airs on the hagpipes. A number of friends were at the rall-way station to wish him good luck station to wish him good luck

Announcement has been made by the New Haven road to the managements of county and state fairs that, during of county and state fairs that, during September, the extra service usually provided may not be possible this year. This is necessitated by the fact that the railroads, in order to co-operate with the government, must give preference over all other traffic to the movements of troops to the training camps.

The New England troops will move throughout this section early in Sep-Many fairs are to be held next month in New England, and, while the company knows the dates of these fairs, it is uncertain concerning the dates of the troop movements until officially notified by the government

Local Laconics. Major Charles P. Williams is one of he judges at the annual Newport orse show. No-license rallies will be held in Stonington this (Thursday) afternoon

The Westerly police officers have of yet struck the trail of the Watch not yet struc Hill burglars.

Men! Spot Cash Will Not Secure You Any Better Value Than We Give You on CREDIT

> Suits too, with all the style and snap of tailor-made, carrying the label of America's foremost and most reliable makers.

NEW FALL SUITS

and Upward to $25

Our Credit Terms

We have no Iron-clad rule, no red tape, no prying into your personal affairs, when you open an account with us. We do not send collectors unless you request it as a convenience. We invite you to all the advantages of this arrangement.

GATELY & BRENNAN, 29 Shetucket St.

is the guest of Mrs. Arthur M. Weeden, Sarah Steadman entertained many of her young friends at her home, 18 Chestnut street, Wednesday, on the occasion of her eighth birthday. Rev. Sidney N. Ussher, chaplain of the Atlantic division of the Red Cross, will tell of the organization and its work, this (Thursday) evening in Borough hall, Stonington.

There was rumor Wednesday afternoon that the large Lawrence stone mansion at Watch Hill, was soon to change ownership and that Mrs. Law-

Rev. Joseph L. Peacock, librarian of Pier for several years, has accepted a call to the First Baptist church in East Lyme. He will leave for his new pastorate September 15, and preach his farewell sermon Sept. 6.

At the bridge's home, 255 Fifth avenue, a reception was given to 50 friends and relatives after the ceremony. At 10.30 a wedding breakfast was served under direction of Mrs. John Kay.

ion includes East and West Greenwich, and all the towns in Washington coun-

Mrs. Elizabeth L. Palmer, widow of Theodore D. Palmer, who has been in poor health several months, died on Wednesday morning in Stonington. She was born in Stonington, Nevem-ber 26, 1847, the daughter of the late Edward and Elizabeth L. Denison. She is survived by two sons and a daughter, also, a sister, Mrs. Harry S. Babcock, of Stonington.

At a business meeting of the West crly Laymen's League thanks were ex-tended to E. Howard Clark, Fred N. Clark and D. Harold Rogers, for their service in connection with meeting in Wilcox park, Sunday night. A com-mittee composed of George A. Ogsten. David B. Hart and La Verne D. Lang-worthy, were appointed to secure the speakers to address the league durmg the winter.

Electrically charged rods are used Mrs. William Steele, of Pawtucket, ranches in western Texas.

BALTIC.

Soules-Marshall Wedding at St. Mary's Rectory, Followed by Reception at Bride's Home.

At St Mary's rectory Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock Miss Josephine Marshall and Norman Edward Soules Marshall and Norman Edward Soules of Hartford were united in marriage by Rev. J. V. E. Bellanger. Miss Ida Marshall of Norwich, consin of the bride, was bridesmaid and Joseph Kirker of Norwich, was best man. The of Norwich, was best man. The repe with pearl trimmings. She wore a black picture hat with a paradise aigrette and carried a shower bouquet of whitse roses. Her maid wore stray pussy willow taffeta with silver trimmings. She wore a black picture hat with an aigrette and carried Killarney roses.

At the bride's home, 256 Fifth ave

The selection board for state division No. 1, will examine sixty young men each on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, of the present week, under the selective service law. The division includes East and West Greenwich Mr. and Mrs. Soules left Baltic by automobile at 3.15 for a trip to include Boston, Portland, Maine, and different cities in New England.

The bride is the daughter of Francis and Jennie Dupont Marshall. She has ived here for the past 15 years and i popular among a large circ friends. The groom is the son and Mrs. Homer Soules of 244 Hick ory street, Norwich, and is employed as electrician at Colt's arms works Hartford.

The numerous handsome gifts in-uded china, cut glass, linen, silver, household furnishing and a ubstantlal check Guests were present from Hartford, New Haven, Providence, Meriden, Norwich, Greeneville and Baltic.

The bride traveled in a custom suit of blue broadcloth with mole trimmings. She wore a black hat.

Upon their return they will reside in a newly furnished home in Hartford. Mrs. Albert Douville, who has been spending a month with friends in Holoke, Mass, returned home this week. Miss Edythe Grant, who is staying with relatives in town, spent Wei nesday at her home in Quaker Hill.

Threatened His Wife's Life.

Wednesday evening about 6.30 Mrs. Albert Douville notified Deputy Sher-iff John McGuire that her husband had threatened to spill her blood and was awaiting an opportunity to carry out his threat. During the evening Douville went to his home and asked for an interview with his wife. This request was denied and he, Douville, made a number of threatening remarks. Officer McGuire had a close watch on Douville and overheard his threats and watched his different movements. Douville returned to his home and McGuire placed him under arrest. Douville is a big, husky fellow who weighs about 200 pounds, but the deputy proved his equal and landed him in the lockup. During the time the officer was escorting the prisoner Douville asked McGuire not to hold his right arm. At the station the officer his right arm. At the station the offi-cer scarched Douville but could not find any weapons or dangerous in-struments. Shortly after placing his

Deputy McGuire hurried to the cell He found Douville with a 22 caliber revolver clasped in his hand. The room was in darkness and the officer pulled his flashilght and wrenched the wea-non from Douville. McGuire sum-moned Dr. Eurr and upon investigat-ing found that the bullet penetrated the wall opposite the call. Officer Mc-Guire does not seem to know where Douville had the weapon concealed. Douville had been searched thorough cealed it in his coat sleeve. The re-volver contained five cartridges with one discharged. Douville will be given a hearing this (Thursday) morning. Have Been Helped. Whatever else may be the result, the reports of the railroads indicate hat they are going to come out of he war a good deal more efficient organizations than they have been before.-indianapolis News.

Was to be Expected.

As might have been expected, the find any weapons or dangerous instruments. Shortly after placing his man in a cell a shot rang out and centre.—As might have been expected, the Pope's suggestion that the moral law struments. Shortly after placing his struments. Shortly after placing his sternly combatted by Count von Reventlow.—Chicago Herald.

Don't You Want Good Teeth?

Does the dread of the dental chair cause you to neglect them? You need have no fears. By our method you can have your crowned or extracted ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT PAIN. CONSIDER THESE OTHER FEATURES

STRICTLY SANITARY OFFICE STERILIZED INSTRUMENTS CLEAN LINEN

ASEPTIC DRINKING CUPS LOWEST PRICES CONSISTENT WITH BEST WORK

If these appeal to you, call for examination and estimats. No charge for consultation. DR. F. C. JACKSON DR. D. J. COYLE

DENTISTS

(Successors to the King Dental Co.) 203 MAIN ST.

Lady Asistant

8 A. M. to 8 P. M.

NORWICH, CONN.